Versus

STATE OF BIHAR

3/ 11.11.2008 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

According to allegation, the informant's sister and her daughter were being pressurized to enter in some nafarious activities by the accused persons including the petitioners. This was denied by them and subsequently, they were killed.

It appears that in course of investigation, the dead bodies of both the ladies were recovered from the house of the petitioners. This cannot be a case of false implication. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners presently. Accordingly, their prayer for bail is rejected.

However, the petitioners may move before the court below for bail if the informant in course of trial does not support the prosecution case.
